

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Ted Cymbaly, BES, MCIP, RPP.

Ted Cymbaly
Senior Associate

Mr. Cymbaly holds a Bachelors Degree (Honours) in Environmental Studies from the University of Waterloo (1970). He is a Member of the Canadian Institute of Planners (MCIP) and a Registered Professional Planner (RPP) in Ontario.

Mr. Cymbaly has 38 years of planning experience in both the public and private sectors including his own consulting practice. Upon graduation he commenced his career with Sawchuk and Peach – Architects/Planners and then the Community Planning Branch of the Department of Municipal Affairs in Sudbury, Ontario.

Mr. Cymbaly then moved east to become the Director of Planning for the Windsor-West Hants Joint Planning Advisory Committee in Nova Scotia before moving west to join the Department of Municipal Affairs as Co-coordinator of Regional Planning in Saskatchewan. Returning to Ontario, he joined the City of North York as a Senior Planner and Co-ordinator of the Official Plan Program. He later joined the North York Board of Education as the Executive Planner (Property Planning).

Mr. Cymbaly continued his career as a private independent planning consultant for several years before joining the amalgamated City of Toronto. Re-entering the private sector Mr. Cymbaly joined the planning consulting firm of Walker, Nott, Dragicevic – Planning Consultants and then subsequently joined Weston Consulting Group Inc. in 2004.

Mr. Cymbaly's expertise is in urban and regional land-use planning and development as well as land use issues related to school planning. He has provided professional services in all areas of official plans, zoning by-laws, secondary plans, due diligence analysis, subdivision and site plan design to municipal and provincial levels of government, private individuals, ratepayer and community organizations as well as the development industry. Mr. Cymbaly also has extensive experience as an expert witness before the Ontario Municipal Board.

Mr. Cymbaly currently functions as a senior project manager and is a senior member of the team at Weston Consulting Group Inc.

You can reach Ted here;

tcymbaly@westonconsulting.com
